Pastor's Notes †

Colossians 1:21-29: St. Paul knew full well that in Christ he had been redeemed from all his past sins and failures and equipped by the power of the Holy Spirit to live his life as a good steward of the mysteries and blessings of the Gospel. By God's grace we are also called to freely and joyfully live our lives and use all of God's blessings to honor Him and make life sweeter for others.

Life Quotes from Lutherans for Life- "The Bible tells us that only in the heavenly home will we come to know the meaning of perfection (Rev. 7:16-17). Our neighbors, whose beautiful little girl is suffering from a brain tumor, will not have to wonder why she should be afflicted in this way for there will be no disease and imperfections that we live with while here on earth. We will not see bodies dying of malnutrition, and no more tears will be shed...Is it no wonder that St. Paul, knowing the heavenly home awaited him, said, 'For me to live is Christ, but to die is gain' (Phil. 1:21)." -Rev. Homer Larson.
